About Vitacca Dance Project Pre-Professional Company

Vitacca Dance Project Pre-Professional Company is a nonprofit, repertory company offered to 8 pre-professional dancers, ages 13-18. This season the company works with featured guest choreographers Autumn Eckman, Artistic Associate from Giordano Jazz Dance Chicago; Andy and Dionne Noble, Directors of NobleMotion Dance and Assistant Dance Professors at Sam Houston State University; and Joseph Walsh, Houston Ballet Principal dancer. The 36 week program provides advance ballet and contemporary coaching and acts as the foundation for professional dance careers. The company educates the pre-professional dancer on the artistic process of repertoire creation along with industry standards. Pre-Professional Company members work with world-class faculty, notable local artists and renowned national artists. Performance opportunities include venues such as Dance Chicago, Vitacca P&C's Annual Gala, national festivals and showcases.

About Vitacca Productions & Company

Vitacca Productions & Company is a dance development organization that provides advance dance coaching, outreach programs, professional performances and production/creative management services which bridge the gap between dance artists, career opportunities and the community.
